Serial No.

The need for creating facilities for females prisoners for recreation was considered by the ~~the~~ Prison Reforms Committee, and they recommended that ample facilities should be provided in the forms of singing, recitations, reading and indoor games, also occasional performances by outside artistes, and they were of opinion that light physical exercises and outdoor games like badminton would be helpful and even reformative in effect where they can be conducted ~~conducted~~ provided. (Chap III. Paras 44)

The I. G. of Prisons proposes that a small part of the sum of Rs 1000/- provided for Harikathas, bhajans etc under rule 391(c) of the Jail Manual may be used on the purchase of Chess, Draught and such other indoor games for women prisoners.

The Committee's recommendation is for provision ~~for~~ being made for ~~both~~ indoor as well as outdoor games. A beginning may perhaps be made with indoor games as suggested by the I. G. of Prisons, ~~[illegible]~~

The recommendation of the Prison Reforms Committee in para 44 of Chapter VII of their Report in the matter of providing some recreation to the female prisoners.

ORDER P.S.405-15/ Pris 62-41-

Dated Bangalore 27 May 1942.

The need for creating facilities to the female prisoners by way of recreation was brought to the notice of Government by the Prison Reforms Committee. The Inspector Gener of Prisons who was consulted in the matter suggested that a small portion of the amount set apart in the Jail budget for Harikathas and Bhajanas under Rule 391(C) of the Jail Manual may be used for buying sets of indoor games like Chess and Draught.

Government are pleased to approve of the suggestion of the Inspector General of Prisons to provide for indoor games to the female prisoners. But the games to be provided, may be restricted to Indian games played by Indian women in villages. They may also be trained in "Rangoli" (ರಂಗೋಲಿ ಹಾಕುವುದು).
